ALL GAMES

The Players -- As published in DIPLOPHOBIA #4 and amended in #'s 5-8, with addenda and corrigenda as follows:

Budd, Paul -- NC -- 5000 Mass. Ave., N.W., Wash., D.C., 20016 (362-5581)
Gemignani, Margaret -- Add NC; is now back at her home in Rochester.
Glavic, Ronald J. -- NC -- 430 Timberidge Trail, Gates Mills, Ohio, 44040
Gordon, Steve -- Add NC.
Haramis, Linn -- Add NC.
Hoheisel, R. Wayne -- CoA -- 3417 Univ. Blvd. West, Kensington, Md. (949-9091)
(address is through April 1; after that, he will have moved again).
Latimer, Jim -- Will be home from Merrimack March 22-29 (home address: 4011
Silver Hill Road, Wash., D.C., 20023; phone, 423-3062).
Miller, Mike -- NC -- 9611 Watts Branch Drive, Rockville, Md., 20850 (762-4365)
Muhlhauser, Fritz -- Add NC.

Replacement Players -- PFC: Dobson; PHC: Latimer; PIC: Latimer; PJC: Latimer; PKC: Latimer; PLC: Latimer; PMC: Shagrin. We also have a stand-by replacement player for PGD. Stand-by replacement players are urgently needed for games PAA, PBA, PCA, PDE, PEA, and PNC. No replacement moves needed this time around. The vote concerning the retention of the current replacement rule to date is 3-3 ("AYE": Kuch, Clark, Latimer; "NAY": Muhlhauser, Hoheisel, Huff). Come on now, let's have some more votes -- else you'll be stuck with whatever decision I finally make on this issue, whether you like it or not. As a player, I'd vote "AYE"; as a GM, I'd vote "NAY" -- so I need your help in making this decision!

The Gamesmaster -- For all games, Don Miller, 12315 Judson Rd., Wheaton, Md., 20906 (Phone 301-933-5417; call only between 7:30 and 11:00 p.m.; on weekdays except Fri.).

The "House-Rules" -- As published in DIPLOPHOBIA #1, and amended in #'s 4-6. Note new rates ($2) effective with game PCC, as described in DIPLOMANIA 14/15.

New Game -- Game POC ("Regular Diplomacy Game #3") has just been opened ($3 if this is your first game in any Games Bureau Diplomacy 'zine; $2 otherwise; additional $1 if first game in 'zine in DIPLOMANIA family for 10-issue sub to DIPLOMANIA optional, but strongly advised). So far, one person (Tommy Lee Ogle) on roster. Game PPC ("Regular Diplomacy Game #9") will be opened after roster for POC is filled. We will also accept entries for 2-, 3-, and 5-man games.

Miscellaneous -- Sorry for the delay -- but please note everyone will have plenty of time after they receive this issue before the April 5 deadline; we hope this will satisfy those persons who have been complaining of tight deadlines. O.k.? FANTASIA #9, SUPERCAL #7 (replacement players needed), and DIPSOMANIA #9 out soon; ditto for DIPLOMANIA #16. Another player still needed for HYPERSPACE II -- and 25 more needed for ANARCHY III (or is it 24?). Details of SUPERECONOMIC DIPLOMACY to be published in DIPLOMANIA #16. Note: All Dukes and Citizens of France in SIMULATION DIPLOMACY #1 are to attend meeting at home of Don Miller on March 24 at 8 p.m. This is an Official Meeting, with election of Privy Council scheduled. Propaganda --

Berlin -- Vienna: The civilian government of our country wishes to express deep regrets in regard to the terrible crimes committed by our rebel military leaders. You will be happy to learn of the death of General Karl von Phynk, the rebel leader, who died -- not in battle -- but in the stampede panic of his own troops.

Berlin -- Moscow: One small word of advice: when you take Berlin, please don't give part to the Americans.

Berlin -- Anybody: HELP?

Copenhagen, Denmark -- Count Alexis Trubloff has arrived in this city to continue reviewing Russian forces. After accompanying Tsar Ivan of Russia from Warsaw to Saint Petersburg, he was encouraged to leave Russia and continue to review Russian troops "for the sake of their morale". The large entourage with Count Trubloff and the continuing state of Tsar Ivan's health leads observers to the opinion that Trubloff has taken command of Russia's military operations for the duration of the Tsar's illness. At a news conference here Count Trubloff neither denied nor admitted to speculations, saying, "I will continue to implement the wishes and orders of Tsar Ivan. He has asked me to reach a quick and humane solution to Russo-German conflicts. His stand is as firm as ever and his hand is the ruler of Russian destiny. He has ordered me to seek negotiations with the Germans, but he has cautioned me not to let Russian demands and rights be ignored. In event of any overtures from German officials I am charged with the responsibility of preserving Russian interests."

England -- France: He who stands alone, falls alone.

England -- Austria-Hungary: Go, Go! Come on over to the English side. Make the smart, mod switch. Have the blessing of telling Russia where to go. And pick the winner for a friend. Write!

England -- Austria and Russia: A telegram has been sent to Tsar Ivan of Russia. It reads: "England sends regards to all Russia. We will lick the Germans who are interfering in our land. We wish you to take note of this and make no additional troubles to our already troubled land -- leave our supply centers in peace. We will extend the same courtesy to you. The Hun will be stopped."

England -- Austria: The message reads: "Do not worry, we will take care of your nation better than you took care of us. No German will invade your land. You will remember that we are a better friend than you were."

England -- Huff: If you were a mouse, you would really be in trouble. The Slogan for today: Don't Trust Huff! (That's for attacking me in nine out of ten games.)

Italy -- Who's a dupe?

You're a stupe!

St. Petersburg -- The failing health of the seventy-four year-old Tsar Ivan which necessitated his quick return from Warsaw has kept the Tsar from reviewing the last work on the new Russian flagship, the battleship Anton Chekov, due for launching in Murmansk this spring. It is hoped by Russian officials that the ailing Tsar will be able to officiate at the commissioning and actual launching of the Anton Chekov in April. (At that time the Anton Chekov, which is to be commanded by Admiral Nikolai Khranin, will be launched with its sister ships, battleship Leo Tolstoi and battleship Ivan Turgenev, and will form the nucleus of Russia's new Third Fleet.)

The Tsar's illness seems to be, as reports from reliable sources indicate, stemming from the pneumonia he contracted while in Poland. The lingering effects of his pneumonia are complicated by his advanced age.

Paris -- What stupid, trusting Italians. They shall soon learn.

Deadline for SPRING, 1904 moves and propaganda -- Noon, Wednesday, April 5.

PGD ("3x3 Team Game with Wild-Card Player I")

The Players, Rules and Board -- See DIPLOPHOBIA #'s 1-5, 7, and 8.

Propaganda --

Ankara -- Turkey regrets to announce that the Russo-Turkic policy of liberation must be extended to encompass the Po valley and points south. The reason behind this move is the Rome policy of exploiting the peasant.

Radio Free Batavia -- The Governor-General of the Netherlands East Indies today called upon all colonies of the Netherlands Empire to help in restoring Queen Wilhelmina to her rightful throne. The Governor-General appointed, in the name of the Queen, General Van Heutz to head the Dutch Army of Liberation.

General Van Heutz announced, "All German property is to be seized, the North Sea is declared a war zone, and all German shipping is liable to search and seizure -- four battleships have been ordered from United States shipyards -- mustering and training is to begin immediately, and coast-defense batteries are to be built to protect key points of free Netherlands. Long live the Queen! Long live Holland!"

Washington, D.C. -- Reports from our consulate in the Hague tell of widespread rioting there, and in Amsterdam, Rotterdam, Maastricht, Utrecht, and other key cities. Thousands protesting the German occupation have been massacred by the Kaiser's troops. Further reports tell of extensive sniping against the German troops. Support for the DAL and freedom is obvious.

Rome -- Ankara: Huh?

Rome -- Do you ever feel surrounded? Closed in?

Deadline for FALL, 1903 moves and propaganda -- Noon, Wednesday, April 5.

PIC ("Regular Diplomacy Game #3")

The Players, Rules and Board -- See DIPLOPHOBIA #'s 2 and 5.

SPRING, 1903 moves -- RUSS

Positions at end of SUMMER, 1903 (retreating unit is either in position shown in parens or off the board) -- A-H: A's Ser, Bud, Tri, Tyo; F Bul(SC) (5); ENG: A Nwy; F's Hel, NtS, Nwg, Bre (5); FRA: A'Gas (1); GER: A's Bur, Pic, Hol, Den, Pru, Sil; F Bel (7); ITA: A's Mar, Tun; F's Lyo, WMe (4); RUS: A's Ukr, Fin, StP; F's Rum, Swe (5); TUR: A's Sev, (Con); F's Bla, Gre (4?).

Propaganda --

Ankara -- Sultan Al Cohol today announced that the Tsar of Most Russias had been acting strangely, "ever since we sent him that last pun", and that steps had been taken to make sure that an apparent threat to the peace and mutual accord between Turkey and Russia would not develop. When asked about the exact nature of those steps, the Sultan replied, "No Comment". However, neutral observers have noticed that the number one hit on the Turkish Top Twenty for the last few weeks has been "Marching Through Georgia". Interestingly, the previous favorite, "Beautiful Blue Danube", has entirely disappeared from all shops and stores.

Berlin -- The German Emperor, Kaiser Fritz von Rühkzack, said: "Mein Meindt ist upgemacht. Von Santa vill von Feld Marshall zu Platz Marshall getropfen."

Paris -- Ex-Field Marshall and now Plot Marshall Klaus von Santa received his demotion stoically as his lost troops returned from Picardy to establish lines of communication. He had nothing to say to his troops on the matter of his drop in rank, but he did ask all his returning subordinates, "Did you findt dat crazy Rudolph and get mein lavender pants back?" Plot Marshall von Santa was visibly unsettled by the news that his pants still have not been found.

Deadline for SUMMER, 1903 retreat (TUR: A Bul) and FALL, 1903 moves and propaganda -- Noon, Wednesday, April 5.

PJC ("Regular Diplomacy Game #4")

The Players, Rules and Board -- See DIPLOPHOBIA #4.

TUR -- Ank, Bul, Con, Smy, Ser (may build one unit).	(5)

Propaganda --

Ankara -- Several ragged and half-starved Tunisian refugees were rescued today in the Aegean Sea. They report Italian construction of some 60 heavy warships in hidden coves and bays of Tunisia. They also report that hundreds of thousands of Tunisians have died as a result of "scientific" experiments carried out by the inhuman Italian murderers.

Ankara -- It is rumored that a certain unnamed ruler of an unnamed country, now building a large navy under the guise of scientific exploration, has contracted a most odious social disease from "experiments" he personally carried out among the down-trodden Tunisians.

Ankara -- Pope Emmanuel was warned today not to interfere in the Just War of Liberation that the Ottoman Empire must reluctantly undertake to save the starving peoples of Greece, Serbia, Albania, Budapest, Trieste, and Vienna.

Moscow -- Sorry London, I believe what I read.

Rome (September 12) -- In a passionate outcry against the barbaric atrocities practiced by the Ottoman in the Holy Land, Pope Emmanuel declared, "The Church and the peoples of Italy pledge to battle the Moslems and their allies until the Holy Land is freed and the Moslem threat to Christian Europe is crushed!"

8
Rome (October 29) -- The Holy See announced today that soldiers of the Church successfully landed in Syria. The announcement reported that a great battle is now raging for control of Palestine -- infantry of the 24th Division are driving the enemy back upon the walls of Jerusalem.

Jerusalem (November 13) -- There is great rejoicing among the men of the Italian Expeditionary Force. The last Ottoman citadel was captured early this morning, and the city has been declared "secured". The banners of Christendom once again wave over this sacred city of the Church.

Deadline for AUTUMN, 1902 retreats (A-H: A Ser; RUS: F Nwy) and WINTER, 1902 builds/removals -- Noon, Wednesday, April 5.

PKC ("Regular Diplomacy Game #5")

Positions at end of SUMMER, 1902 (no SUMMER retreats) -- A-H: A's Bud, Vie, Ser; F Alb; ENG: A's Nwy, Edi; F's Nwg, NtS; FRA: A's Gas, Bel, Par; F's Spa(SC), Mid, EnC; GER: A's Kiel, Mun, Hol; F's Hel, Den (5); ITA: A's Tyo, Ven; F Ion (3); RUS: A's Ukr, War, Gal; F's Sev, Swe, StP(NC) (6); TUR: A's Smy, Bul; F's Con, Aeg (4); A-H: (4); ENG: (4); FRA: (6).

Propaganda --

London -- The Prime Minister made this statement concerning the recent propaganda from the Vatican City: "My advice to the Pope or to whoever writes the Italian propaganda is to write in short and tight sentences until he masters the art of using long, loose sentences. The meaning of the last piece of news from the Vatican was highly obscure for the fact that it was derogatory towards the English nation. I might also remind the Pope that Austria-Hungary is a Catholic nation. It seems the Pope is willing to declare anyone a heretic as long as it serves a political purpose. This sort of political opportunism is not needed in Europe. Austria-Hungary has our moral, political, and, where possible, military support.

Sevastopol -- MDMD (Moscow Diplomatic Magazine of Diplomacy) has reported that the Russian Fleet that successfully took and held Rumania has gone to Sevastopol for some relaxation. They are being primed for an upcoming attack. You better watch out, Alexander!!

THE MOSCOW DIPLOMATIC MAGAZINE OF DIPLOMACY (MDMD) -- We apologize for our remarks about Italy, and beg its pardon most humbly. The Censorship Bureau has expressed a desire to see us ally with Italy and wipe out both the Austro-Hungarian devils and the Turkish infidels. With 10 new supply centers divided among us, Russia could destroy the world. And when the Censorship Bureau expresses a desire, the peasantry had better comply, or else . . .

9
SWISS PEASANT'S JOURNAL -- While the Constantinople Bulletin may be reluctant to press the matter of the GM's cowardice (hiding in Switzerland while the rest of the major powers blow each other's brains out), we of the Swiss Peasant's Journal feel no such reluctance, because we are independent and not under the GM's control. Sure, we appreciate the tourist trade he brings in. We also like the money he squanders. But, this money is gained by embezzlement of funds of other countries, so we feel morally obligated to refuse his money and do our best to expel him from this country into the War Zone. Therefore, the editors of the Journal call for the organization of the Anti-GM Society, and we will furthermore report the popularity of the AGMS to the PKC officials every six months or less.

GM -- Haven't you heard -- the GM is Ghod -- so watch your step, Earthling! Stand by, Replacement Player . . .

No source given -- Note to second ditto in #8: Be warned -- If you, whoever you are, attempt to help A-H, your own downfall will be attended to. Signed, the Anti-A-H Section, Italian Foreign Office, and the same branch of the Russian Government.

Deadline for FALL, 1902 moves and propaganda -- Noon, Wednesday, April 5.

Propaganda --

Berlin -- Constantinople: Your goal of a weak Russia is an interesting idea. You may count on my contribution. --- ZAPP

Berlin -- Rome: This is a contact, as you requested. What's up, Doc??

Rome -- Everyone: Hark! What goeth on in ye olde English Channele?

Rome -- Paris: They're gonna get you some day.

Vienna -- Several units of the Serbian Expeditionary Force mutinied against their officers last week and joined Turkish army elements in sacking the Rumanian countryside. Rumors that each Aus-Hungarian soldier who helped the Turks was given a harem were called ridiculous and unfounded by the leader of the revolt, who was found dying of exhaustion in his quarters. It is said that the undertakers were unable to get the smile off of his face.

Deadline for WINTER, 1901 builds and propaganda -- Noon, Wednesday, April 5.

PME ("Calhamer 5-Man Diplomacy")

The Players, Rules and Board -- See DIPLOPHOBIA #8. Swenson ($3.00) and Haldeman ($1.00) still owe game-fees; please pay them not later than the SPRING, 1901 move deadline.

PNC ("Regular Diplomacy Game #7")

The Players -- Paul Budd, A-H; Linn Haramis, ENG; Ron Glavic, FRA; Steve Gordon, GER; Fritz Muhlhauser, ITA; Mike Miller, RUS; Margaret Gemignani, TUR. Game-fees are owed by all but Haramis, who has already paid. Fees owed are: Budd, $3.00; Glavic, $3.00; Gordon, $1.00; Muhlhauser, $1.00; Miller, $3.00; Gemignani, $1.00. Fees must be paid not later than SPRING, 1901 move deadline. Addresses for new players are given on page one of this issue of DIPLOPHOBIA; addresses for the rest of the players are as follows: Haramis -- 2323 Belleflower, Alliance, Ohio, 44601; Gordon -- 2205 East 7th St., Brooklyn, N.Y., 11223; Muhlhauser -- 5918 3rd St. South, Arlington, Va., 22204 (phone 671-0074); Gemignani -- 67 Windermere Road, Rochester, N.Y., 14610 (phone HU2-0068).

The Rules and Board -- The board is the standard 7-nation Regular Diplomacy board. The rules are the same as in the rule-book sold with the board and pieces by the Games Research, Inc. (48 Wareham St., Boston, Mass., 02118) (a complete set, rules, pieces, and board, is $7.50; rulebook alone is $1.00; paper conference maps are 100 for $1.00), with interpretations as noted in DIPLOMANIA 14/15 (to be pulled together and published separately with DIPLOMANIA 16 or 17), with one exception:

To achieve victory, a player must have 18 units on the board at the completion of a Winter season; it is not enough to merely own 18 supply centers, or to merely have a majority of the units actually on the board.

See DIPLOMANIA 14/15 for a discussion of this "victory criterion" rule. Also, see DIPLOPHOBIA #1 (and the revision to be published in DIPLOMANIA 16 or 16) for a rundown on the DIPLOMANIA "House-Rules".

Deadline for SPRING, 1901 moves and propaganda (& fees) -- Noon, Wednesday, April 5.
